This year's Conference is the largest yet and is expected to draw 2,000 gaming professionals and more than 15,000 attendees from around the world. The program will include, a full day in conjunction with the American Gaming Association's (AGA) Player's Advisory Council (PAC) that will provide insights into the latest trends in industry leadership. AGA PAC member, Ken Cooper, President & CEO of the Mohegan Sun Casino, will return to discuss the industry with a panel of industry leaders. Other highlights of the program include one-on-one meetings with gaming industry leaders and visits to the Gaming Center and other Gaming-related attractions. Jocelyn Cornwell, President and CEO of the American Gaming Association, said, "I am thrilled that the AGA is putting together the 2018 Tribal Gaming Conference as it continues to solidify our position as the premier destination for the public, professional and scientific face of the U.S. gaming industry. I look forward to bringing together a top-notch three-day program with everyone from the industry's thought-leaders to visitors and attendees." This year, the AGA PAC will be hosting a number of other activities including a US$20,000 scholarship program, a youth speaker series, a blackjack tournament and a variety of gaming-related exhibits.
